ROYAL PRESIDENT PARK

Sukhumvit Soi 15's Royal President Park may not be the fairest serviced apartment of them all. But, couple this 186 room property's new face-lift with its competitive weekly rates and you have a very attractive proposition for long-stayers. Studios and suites across its three wings have been upgraded, with their Executive Studios and Sapphire Suites in particular now looking very of-the-minute — new upholstery, new furniture, new ovens etc. A week's stay in the latter currently costs B15,114: great value considering it comes with a spacious living area, kitchenette and bedroom and includes buffet breakfast and free Internet access. Facilities include a fitness centre, outdoor pool with Jacuzzi and a freshly refurbished meeting room good for a meeting of up to 40. Those who like to play as hard as they work will also like the long list of guest privileges and discounts. Flash your keycard at Bed Supperclub's doormen, for example, and you'll gain free entry for you and a guest (15% discount on special DJ nights).
