

HOME AWAY FROM HOME

A desire for more than another anonymous hotel room led to the discovery of comfortable home away from home in the capital city of Thailand.

Frequent travellers are often the hardest to impress as they're also to some extent jaded travellers. So what do frequent travellers still appreciate despite having seen so much and done most of everything? Perhaps warm hospitality and excellent service in the place they call their temporary home.

In the busy, frenetic city of Bangkok, finding a comfortable haven that lets you leave the stresses of the day behind is not always easy. Finding accommodation that comes with friendly attentive service that stops short of being intrusive is more so.

The motto at President Park is "at home in the heart of the city" and if the word of mouth on the fully-serviced apartments is to be believed, the staff has managed to live up to its promise and lived up to it well.

ALL THE ESSENTIALS OF HOME

There are 228 suites and studios of varying sizes at the President Park – from the modest 36sq metre Standard Room to the very spacious 80sq metre Family Suite, which is great for long-term stays. Every room and suite is furnished with all the comforts of home, including a cosy sitting area, a compact kitchenette with refrigerator, microwave oven, hot plate, cutlery, glassware and dinnerware.

Cooking utensils are available upon request, and selected suites come with a washer and dryer if you don't want to take advantage of the daily linen service, even if the maid service would be more than welcome! Then there is also the availability of an LCD television and a multitude of channels in English, Thai and Arabic as well.

Business travellers would certainly welcome the in-room broadband internet service and a spacious desk for the laptop. If you'd rather use your suite for rest rather than work, President Park also offers a business centre and meeting rooms.

That said, all these amenities wouldn't be as valued by guests if the staff were not friendly, attentive and genuinely warm. And the furnishings and interior design of the property reflects the level of hospitality offered: serene, contemporary, plush without being fussy and a selection of earth tones accented by pops of bright colour all lend a welcoming air that guests would appreciate.

CENTRAL LOCATION

A fully-serviced apartment property, President Park also has all the amenities to make one's stay complete. There is a swimming pool, a well-equipped fitness centre, a playground for children, climbing wall and even a spa and hair salon! Although it's centrally located in the upscale Sukhumvit area of Bangkok, near a host of exciting restaurants, shopping malls and entertainment offerings, you won't have to leave President Park if you don't wish to.

But if you would like to see more of Bangkok, there is a travel and tour desk that's only too happy to help you make arrangements to see the sights and the serviced apartments provide a complimentary tuk-tuk service to the Phrom Phong BTS Skytrain station and the nearby Emporium Shopping Centre. Within walking distance are also well-stocked hypermarkets where you can get groceries and day-to-day necessities.

Thanks to its convenient location near mass transit systems and proximity to major expressways, President Park is perfect for business as well as leisure travellers. This coupled with its reputation for good service and warm hospitality, makes it just as inviting for foreigners looking for longer-term accommodation.
